

A romantic wedding scene featuring a bride and groom walking through a field of tall, golden grass at sunset. The bride is wearing a white lace wedding dress, and the groom is in a grey suit. In the background, a dark-colored house with white window frames is visible, set against a backdrop of trees and a bright, glowing sun.

“We met with Sara and instantly felt comfortable sharing our ideas and hearing her suggestions about how she would help us with our idea of a concert-themed wedding. We hired Lulu & Co. days later and got to planning. Sara remained available and helpful, meeting us at our venue a few times to go over details and get a game plan together. The night before our wedding Sara and her team were at our venue, The Viewpoint Hotel in York, ME. They helped with rehearsal so that we knew what to do, where to go, when. As we went to dinner we were grateful and confident in knowing they were staying behind to start creating our vision. September 30th, began cold and wet. As we were getting ready, Sara and her team were working their magic in our reception tent, undeterred by the weather. Our flowers arrived and were absolutely beautiful... paired with Sara’s professional creativity and imagination... Her team was there to keep us on schedule and did so all night, which was important to us. She lined us up and as the sun came out, I walked towards my groom. The ceremony went beautifully... We danced into the tent and were able to finally see what they had done to create our vision- we were blown away. We were so impressed by the way they used the decor along with their own ideas to make the space beautiful. Our families and guests were telling us how amazing everything came together and still are! We will always be so grateful to Sara for helping us plan and execute the dream wedding that we had hoped for.”
